Permanent Housing: 148 homeless adults and children.

DRMM's Permanent Housing for disabled homeless people provided housing with social services to 3 families headed by a disabled adult and their 20 children and another 111 single homeless disabled men. They are eligible for permanent supportive housing for as long as they need or until they are able to move to other housing of their choice. Based on their personal plan (which is designed to help them maintain income, needed services and housing), the following services are provided: mental health, medical and dental care, and substance abuse treatment and recovery services. Among those people we housed, were homeless veterans and people with mental illnesses or developmental disabilities. We helped them find employment and income from entitlement programs (such as state supplemental security income and food stamps). Another of our permanent housing programs, Working Homes Working Families provided homes in residential neighborhoods to 6 households headed by formerly homeless adults who were homeless despite the fact that they were employed. That program enables the families to live in a private home for three years. At the end of the third year, those who have maintained tax payments, utilities, a savings account for their children's education, and the property itself are given the deed to the home.
